

COUNTRY CLUB ROAD

USES & AMENITIES:

Scenic views (Blakely Harbor, Blakely Rock, Seattle, Mt. Baker, shipping lanes), wildlife watching, walking, and biking.

SITE DESCRIPTION:

This mile-long stretch of road provides excellent shore views towards the north, east, and west into Blakely Harbor.

BACKGROUND/ HISTORICAL INFORMATION:

Blakely Harbor was the site of the world's largest saw mill at one time. The harbor still shows signs of its mill days, but has largely returned to a fairly natural condition and is now the least developed harbor in Central Puget Sound.

MAP & DIRECTIONS:

Refer to South Bainbridge Area map.

NEARBY SHORELINE ACCESS:

- Blakely Harbor Park
- Rockaway Beach Park
- Fort Ward State Park

(5-7 pullout places along the road shoulder).
